

LA500

LAW

SPECIAL EDITION • THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN L.A.

1

YEARS ON THE LA500

NICOLE SIMONIANPartner
Crowell & Moring*

THE LATEST: Simonian, who specializes in international trade law, joined Crowell & Moring in 2019 after 14 years at Bryan Cave. She is co-chairwoman of Crowell & Moring's international trade practice and head of international employment/global mobility. In January, Simonian was elected to the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce board. She was already serving on the Chamber's World Trade Week Committee and will continue in that role.

BACKGROUND: Simonian has more than 20 years of international and trade and cross border transactional experience. She has significant background as a strategic adviser and often serves as outside general counsel for companies with their market entry and global business expansion, operations and dispositions worldwide. Simonian has deep experience with Asian markets including China, Japan, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, India and Taiwan. In addition to her legal practice, Simonian is a director of Crowell & Moring's China consulting subsidiary, CMI Shanghai. She received a BA from UCLA and a JD from Loyola Law School.