Fellow Members of The Virginia Bar Association and Guests:
On behalf of the Board of Governors, I am pleased to invite you and your family to join us for the Summer Meeting of The Virginia Bar Association at The Homestead in Hot Springs, July 21-24, 2011. VBA members and their families have been gathering in the Allegheny Mountains for the Summer Meeting since 1889, and we look forward to continuing this fine tradition for the 121st year. The weekend promises to be informative and entertaining.

In addition to our always interesting programs presented by our substantive law sections, we are particularly pleased to present three general session programs: a panel discussion on Virginia's ability to remain an attractive place to do business, a review of the 2010 U.S. Supreme Court term in the fifth year of the Roberts Court, and the ever popular ethics presentation by Tom Spahn focusing this year on marketing. We continue our Legacy Series luncheon, marking the 150th anniversary of the Civil War with, "The Civil War in Virginia: The Home Front."

Social events offer opportunities to network with old friends and make new ones. Of course, The Homestead's signature mountain views and recreational activities are hard to resist. Our Friday night black-tie dinner features the portrait unveiling of Virginia Supreme Court Justice LeRoy F. Millette, Jr. On Saturday afternoon, my sister, Adriana Trigiani, will lead a book club program on her best-selling Big Stone Gap series — bring books for her to sign and come enjoy a few laughs with the Trigiani girls and boys. And, we have planned a special program for our guests with an Italian cooking demonstration and tasting on Friday. We look forward to visiting with you at The Homestead!

Best wishes,

Lucia Anna Trigiani
President
